ART – ADULTS RAISING TEENS

Youth retain strong faith for one overwhelming reason: the faith they see in their parents. You may not be able to get a word out of your teen, but they are paying attention to what your priorities are—said and unsaid.

Each month parents will gather with a pastor to talk through the challenges of raising Christian teens and to support one another in conversation and prayer.

ART Schedule—

September 18	February 5
October 16	March 19
December 18	April 23
January 22	May 21

What makes us Christians? Why go to church? What does the Bible say about ethics?

We wrestle with questions TOGETHER.

How is my faith connected to service? Do I just have to believe to go to Heaven? Do I have to do good things for God to love me?

We serve and pray TOGETHER.

What role does the church play in the world? How is the church related to other faiths? What is God Calling me to do?

We seek God's will TOGETHER.

MEET THE TEAM

Tory Gentry—Youth Leader
grew up in Greenville, SC, a life-long member of Westminster Pres. She graduated from Vanderbilt in 2015 with a degree in Medicine, Health, and Society and Financial Econ. In school, Tory was active in the PCUSA as a member of UKirk Nashville, serving as Moderator for two years. Tory moved to DC in 2015 and works for Deloitte Consulting. She joined GPC in Spring 2016. Tory lives in downtown DC, enjoys running, and is getting a puppy named Zily this fall. She looks forward to getting to know each Youth and their family!

Brett Voyles: Youth Activity Coordinator is originally from the Dallas, TX area and is a cradle Presbyterian. She grew up as the child of a Christian Educator and has been to church camps galore, lived in Sunday school, and continues to be a Reformation junkie. She is currently a Sophomore in the School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University and has been attending GPC for the past year along with the mid-week college bible study. (Pictured with john knox!)

Sarah Hartley—Youth Activity Coordinator is a lifelong Presbyterian, originally from Norman, Oklahoma. After graduating from the University of Tulsa in May 2015 she moved to Washington, DC and now serves as the communications coordinator for Georgetown Ministry Center. In her free time Sarah enjoys traveling with family, college football,sewing, kayaking and hiking.

Sarah Joined GPC this year. With lots of Youth Group experience, she is looking forward to serving GPC in this New way!

Grace Wenzel—Youth Activity Coordinator
Is from Louisville. I'm what some might call a cradle Presbyterian. I was born into, baptized, and confirmed at the same church in Louisville so when I went away to college, it was really important to me That that I continued to be involved in a faith community, which is why I started going to GPC.
